1. Introducing the Pocket Prep™ for the NEW SAT

Welcome to the 2005 edition of the *Pocket Prep™ for the NEW SAT. The SAT-2400 is a powerful, electronic reference that lets you study the areas covered in the exam, take practice tests, evaluate your performance and improve skills - all in an effort to get the best SAT score you can.

With the Pocket Prep™ for the NEW SAT, you can:

- read preparation materials including strategies for taking the new SAT, information about the design of the exam, and tutorials focused on verbal, math, and vocabulary skills;
- bookmark sections or words to review later;
- practice with three full exams that can be timed and scored;
- time your practice tests by counting up or down with the clock;
- use the calculator to help solve math problems.
- review answers and explanations;
- diagnose and compare your performance with reports that you can format;
- find over 100,000 words with comprehensive definitions, most of which contain parts of speech and usage examples;

* SAT is a registered trademark of The College Entrance Examination Board, which was not involved in the production of, and does not endorse, this product.

- see a word's synonyms, antonyms, and other related words using the built-in thesaurus;
- use the Grammar Guide, a comprehensive outline of English grammar;
- create your own list of study words in the user word list;
- improve your spelling and vocabulary by playing fun and educational games - Letris, Word Dozer, Flash Cards, SAT Drills and Grammar Guide Quizzes.

To learn more, read this User's Guide.

✓ About Screen Illustrations

Some screen illustrations in this User's Guide may differ slightly from what you see on screen. This does not mean that your unit is malfunctioning.

✓ Help is Always at Hand

You can view a help message at any screen by pressing . Use the navigation button to scroll through the text. To exit help, press .

During practice tests, press  to access reference information for the current question, if available. To exit reference information, press . Press  to access a help menu. Press A to view instructions for the current question or press B to view a help message. In each case, use the navigation button to scroll through the text. To exit instructions or help, press .

2. Getting Started

Before you begin using the Pocket Prep™ for the NEW SAT, you must:

- install the batteries,
- perform a system reset, and
- turn on the unit.

As you use the Pocket Prep™ for the NEW SAT, you may want to change settings, such as the font size and contrast. It is highly recommended that you set the clock before starting a practice test. If you do not set the clock, the time stamp for the practice test will be inaccurate.

Installing or Replacing Batteries

Your unit comes with and is powered by four (4) AAA batteries. Install the batteries provided in the packaging to start using the unit. Replace the batteries as soon as the low battery warning is displayed.

Follow these instructions to install or replace the batteries.

1. Press  to turn your unit off and turn it over.
2. Lift the battery cover on the back of your unit by pushing up on the catch.

3. Remove the old batteries, if necessary.
4. Install the batteries following the +/- markings in the battery compartment.
5. Replace the battery cover.

Warning: If the batteries wear-out completely any user-entered information may be erased. You should always keep written copies of your important information.

Battery disposal: Do not dispose of batteries with normal household waste. Please obey your local regulations when disposing of used batteries.

Battery Precautions

- Non-rechargeable batteries are not to be recharged. Never recharge batteries that come with the unit.
- Rechargeable batteries are to be removed from the unit before being charged.
- Rechargeable batteries are only to be charged under adult supervision.
- Only batteries of the same or equivalent type as recommended are to be used.
- The supply terminals are not to be short-circuited;
- Do not expose batteries to direct heat or try to take batteries apart. Follow the battery manufacturer's instructions for battery use.
- Always remove a weak or dead battery from the unit.
- To avoid damage caused by leakage of the battery fluid, replace the battery or batteries once every two years regardless of how much the unit has been used during that time.
- Should a battery leak, the unit may become damaged. Clean the battery compartment immediately, avoiding contact with your skin.
- Keep batteries out of reach of small children. If swallowed, consult a physician immediately.

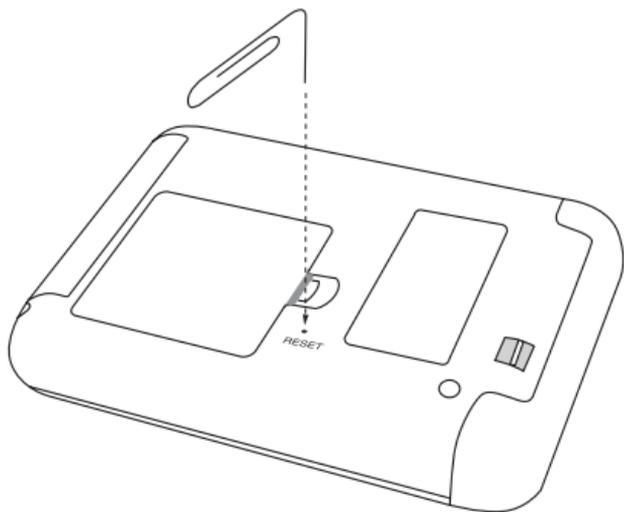

Resetting Your Device

If the keyboard fails to respond or if the screen performs erratically, perform a system reset by following these steps.

1. Use a the blunt end of a paper clip to gently press the reset button on your unit.

The reset button is recessed in a pin-sized hole on the back of the unit.

Warning! Pressing the reset button with more than light pressure may permanently disable your unit.

The message, "Initializing...Keep data found in memory?" is displayed.

Note: This message refers to user-entered information not the text of the books. User-entered information includes practice test scores, bookmarks, the user word list, and any settings you may have changed.

2. Press  (the left arrow key), if necessary, to highlight Yes and press  (ENTER).

Select No to clear all user-entered information.

If you select No, the message “Erase data. Are you sure?” is displayed. Select Yes to erase all user-entered information. Select No to preserve the data.

✓ Resuming Where You Left Off

When you turn off the Pocket Prep™ for the NEW SAT and turn it on again, the Princeton Review logo flashes and the last screen you viewed is displayed.

Using the Special Features

The Pocket Prep™ for the NEW SAT is equipped with several special features.

Foreword

Welcome to the 2005 edition of Cracking the New SAT. If you are reading this book, you are likely among the first who will experience the new "improved" SAT in 2005. We've worked hard to make sure you are holding the most up-to-date book on the new test. If you concentrate on the techniques and strategies in this book, you will perform well on the new SAT. The Princeton Review was started more than 20 years ago, based on a

The text of the section is displayed.

Note: In some parts of the book, you may need to select a submenu or another section before reading the text.

3. Press the up or down arrow keys to scroll line by line.

At some places in the text, instructions appear on the screen. For example, the message "◀ Next" may appear at the bottom of the screen. Press the right arrow to go to the next section.

From text, you can highlight words, search for definitions and thesaurus entries, add bookmarks, and add words to a user word list. For details, please read "Highlighting Words" on page 22 and "Using Bookmarks" on page 23.

4. Press the left or right arrows to scroll up or down one screen at a time.

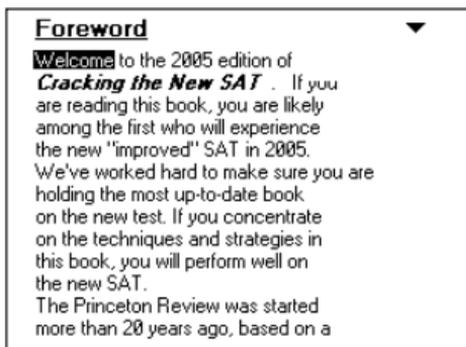

Press  to return to the previous location.

5. Press when done.

Highlighting Words

While reading the prep materials, you may want to look up words in dictionary entries, find thesaurus entries or add words to the user word list. To do these things, you first have to highlight the words. To highlight words, follow these steps.

1. From any location in text, press ENTER to start the highlight.

To turn the highlight off, press .

2. Use the arrow keys to move the highlight to the word you want.

To look up a word, press ENTER.

From reference materials (the dictionary, thesaurus, grammar guide, and so forth), press A to add the highlighted word to the user word list.

3. Press  to return to your previous location.
4. Press  when done.

For more information about finding definitions, see "Using the Dictionary" on page 37.

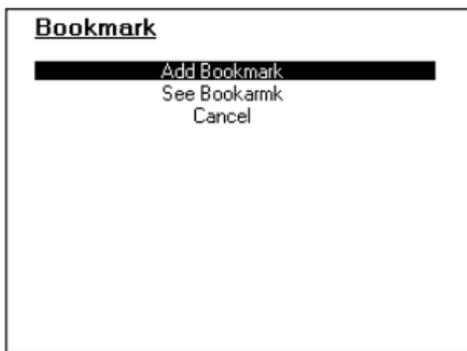

Using Bookmarks

You can add a bookmark at any location in the SAT Prep text and Grammar Guide, delete bookmarks, or delete the entire list of bookmarks.

Note: Bookmarks are saved when you turn the unit on and off. To preserve bookmarks after resetting the unit, you must select Yes when prompted to save data in memory.

To add a bookmark, follow these steps.

1. From any location in text, press  .

The Bookmark menu is displayed.

Note: If you press  from a practice test question, the question is marked with a check so that you can review it later.

If you press  from a menu, you can only view the list of bookmarks or cancel.

2. Press ENTER to add the bookmark.

The message "Bookmark added" flashes on the screen. A small m is displayed in the top, right margin of the text that is bookmarked.

The text that you were viewing before you added to bookmark is displayed.

To view or delete a bookmark, follow these steps.

1. From any location, press  .
2. Press the down arrow to highlight See bookmark list, if necessary, and then press ENTER.

The Bookmarks List is displayed.

3. Press ENTER to highlight the first bookmark.
4. Press the down arrow to highlight the bookmark you want and then press ENTER.

The Bookmark Detail screen is displayed. This screen shows the outline location of the bookmark. From this screen, you can go to the text location of the bookmark, delete the bookmark, or erase all bookmarks.

5. Press ENTER again to select Go to this bookmark.

To delete a single bookmark or erase the entire list of bookmarks, press the down arrow to highlight Delete this Bookmark or Erase All Bookmarks and then press ENTER.

You must confirm the deletion. Press ENTER to delete the bookmark or list of bookmarks. Press  to cancel the deletion.

4. Taking the Practice Tests

The SAT Practice Test menu contains the list of available practice tests. After reviewing the preparation materials, you are ready to take a practice test. But before you begin, you should know what to expect. Taking a practice exam on the unit is different from taking a practice exam on paper.

This chapter describes how to do the following:

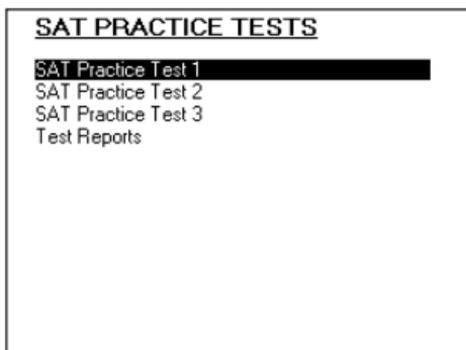

- access practice tests;
- read instructions and passages for a test section;
- answer the different types of questions: essay, critical reading, writing, and math; and
- check your test scores.

It is strongly recommended that you read this entire chapter before you begin a practice test.

Take a Practice Test

To access the SAT Practice Test menu and take a test, follow these steps.

1. Press .
2. Use the arrow keys to highlight SAT Practice Test and then press ENTER.

The SAT Practice Tests menu is displayed.

3. Press the down arrow to highlight the practice test you want and then press ENTER.

The Practice Test screen is displayed.

Note: Once you begin a practice test, you can suspend or abort the test at any time. Turn off the unit to suspend the test or press  to abort the test and discard your results so far.

To return to the SAT Practice Test menu without starting the test, use the navigation button to highlight BACK and then press ENTER.

4. Press ENTER again to begin the test.

If you finish a section of the test before time has expired, you can go back and review your answers for the section, save your answers and continue to the next section, or end the practice test and discard your score.

If you do not finish a section of the practice test before time has expired, you can continue with the exam or end the practice test and discard your score.

At the end of a test, you can save your answers and proceed to the test reports or exit the test.

Press the down arrow to highlight the item you want, then press ENTER.

When you begin a test, information about the first section is displayed. This information includes the number of questions and the time limit.

5. Press ENTER to begin the section.

Reading Instructions and Passages

When you begin a section of a practice test, the directions are displayed, and the timer begins to run.

1. Read the directions carefully.
2. Press the arrow keys to scroll through the directions.
3. After you have read the directions, press ENTER to go to the first question.

Note: For the essay question, all of your work is to be done on the included paper. The unit is to be used only as a timer for the essay question.

Note: For the math sections, the Reference Information also is displayed. Press the arrow keys to scroll through this information and then press the right arrow to go to the first question.

4. Read the question thoroughly.

If you need to read the instructions again, press . A help menu is displayed. Press A to read the instructions or press B to read a help message.

Press  again to return to the question.

Note: If the question refers to a passage or Reference Information, press  to display the information. Press the arrow keys to scroll through this information and then press  again to return to the question.

If you need to use the calculator, press ENTER. Press  to return to the question.

5. Answer the question.

For details about how to answer questions, read “Answering Other Questions” on page 31.

Answering the Essay Question

Just like the SAT exam, the practice test begins with an essay question. You have 25 minutes to complete the essay question.

Use paper that comes in the packaging to write your answer. Write with a pencil, not a pen. And write on every line of the paper. Your essay must not exceed the length of both sides of the paper.

Stop writing after 25 minutes, but do not go on to another section until you have completed the essay. If you go to the next section before 25 minutes has elapsed, the remaining time for the essay is lost.

To begin the essay question, follow these steps.

1. Press ENTER when you are ready to begin.

The timer begins counting as soon as you start the section.

2. Read the directions carefully.

Use the arrow keys to scroll through the directions.

3. After you have read the directions, press the right arrow to go to the essay question.

4. Read the question thoroughly and write your answer on the lined paper provided with the unit.

Note: If you press the right arrow before 25 minutes has elapsed, the end section screen is displayed. You can choose to review the question, continue on to the Essay Score screen, or stop the test and discard the results so far. Use the down arrow to highlight the choice you want and then press ENTER.

After 25 minutes have passed, the message “ESSAY TIME EXPIRED” is displayed on the screen.

5. Press ENTER to go to the Essay Score screen.

SAT TEST[1] - ESSAY SCORE Essay Score: 0 Essay is scored from 2 (worst) to 12 (best). Use ← → to enter score for the essay you just wrote. You can change the score later. ACCEPT SCORE STOP TEST AND DISCARD SCORE

The Essay Score screen is displayed.

The score entered here is the preliminary score for the essay you just wrote. By default, the score is zero (0). The essay is scored from two (worst) to 12, best. You can change the score now or at any time when viewing the report for the practice test.

6. Press the left and right arrow keys to change the score.
7. Press the down arrow to highlight ACCEPT SCORE and press ENTER to record the score.

If you do not want to accept the score, you can stop the test and discard the score. Use the up or down arrow keys to highlight STOP TEST AND DISCARD SCORE and press ENTER.

If you discard the score, you must confirm the deletion. Select CONFIRM to discard the score. Select BACK to return to the Essay Score screen.

After you accept, or adjust the score, the unit displays the next section of the practice test.

Answering Other Questions

To answer questions for the critical reading, writing, and math sections, follow these steps.

1. Press ENTER when you are ready to begin.

The timer begins counting as soon as you start the section.

2. Read the directions carefully.

Press the arrow keys to scroll through the directions.

Note: For the math sections, the Reference Information is displayed. Press the down arrow to scroll through this information and then press the right arrow to go to the first question.

3. After you have read the directions, press the ENTER to go to the first question.

Note: If the question refers to a passage or Reference Information, the passage or Reference Information is displayed. Press the arrow keys to scroll through this information and then press the right arrow to continue on to the question.

4. Read the question thoroughly and read the possible answers.

5. Press an answer button (A - E) to register the answer you want.

If you need to read the instructions again, press . A help menu is displayed. Press A to read the instructions or press B to read a help message.

Press  again to return to the question.

Note: If the question refers to a passage or Reference Information, press  to display the information. Press the arrow keys to scroll through this information and then press  again to return to the question.

If you need to use the calculator, press ENTER.

Press  to return to the question.

6. Press the right arrow to go to the next question.

To skip a question, press the right arrow before pressing an answer button (A - E). To go back to a question, press the left arrow. To change an answer, simply press the answer button (A - E) for the answer you want.

If you are at the last question in a section, the end section screen is displayed. You can choose to review the questions for that section, accept your answers and go on to the next section, or stop the test and discard the results so far.

If you have run out of time, you can accept your answers and go on to the next section or stop the test and discard the results.

7. Press the down arrow to highlight the choice you want and then press ENTER.

If you discard the score, you must confirm the deletion. Select CONFIRM to discard the score. Select BACK to return to the end section screen.

✓ Answering Grid-In Questions

Math Grid-In questions require a special method to enter answers. Follow these steps:

- 1. After reading the question, press A to display the answer grid.

Press  at any time to return to the question.

If you need to use the calculator from the answer grid, press C. Use the calculator as needed, and then press  to return to the answer grid.

If you need to read the instructions again, press . A help menu is displayed. Press A to read the instructions or press B to read a help message. Press  again to return to the question.

Note: If the question refers to Reference Information, press  to display the information.

Press  again to return to the question.

- 2. Press the down arrow to highlight the symbol or number you want to enter into the position in the grid and then press ENTER.
- 3. Press the right arrow to move to the next column in the grid.
- 4. Repeat Steps 2 and 3 until the answer you want is filled into the grid.

Enter only one character in a column. You can leave the first or last column blank. Press E to erase the answer.

- 5. Press A to accept the answer.
The question is displayed.
- 6. Press the right arrow to go to the next question.

Reading Test Reports

You can review the results of each practice test you have taken to see what areas require more preparation and study.

Note: If you have taken a practice test more than four (4) times, the four most recent results for that test are saved.

To review the report for a test you have taken, follow these steps.

1. Press .
2. Use the arrow keys to highlight SAT Practice Test and then press ENTER.

The SAT Practice Tests menu is displayed.

Note: You also can access test reports at the end of a practice test or from the SAT Report Options screen (in the Settings menu).

The Pocket Prep™ for the NEW SAT includes the following reference materials: Merriam-Webster® dictionary, a thesaurus, a grammar guide, a calculator, games, your user word list, and a SAT word list.

Using the Dictionary

To find a dictionary entry, follow these steps.

1. Press .
2. Press the down arrow to highlight Reference and press ENTER.
3. Press ENTER again to select Merriam-Webster's Dictionary.

The letter a is displayed. The blinking line marks the location of the cursor.

Press the up and down arrows to scroll through the alphabet and available symbols.

4. Press the right arrow to move the cursor and enter the second letter.

The word aardvark is displayed.

Please note that when the dictionary finds a word that matches the letters you have entered, it automatically completes the word. If the word you want is displayed, press ENTER to look it up. If not, use the arrow keys to change and add letters until the word you want is displayed.

Press the left arrow to delete the letter at the cursor.

5. Press the up arrow until you see the word await.

6. Press the right arrow to enter the next letter.

The word await is displayed with the cursor at the second letter "a" and the letters "it" are highlighted.

7. Press the right arrow again to enter the next letter.

The word await is displayed with the cursor at letter "i", and the "t" is highlighted.

8. Press the down arrow until the word award is displayed.

9. Press the right arrow to enter the next letter.

10. Press the down arrow until the word aware is displayed.

11. Press ENTER to look it up.

The dictionary entry is displayed.

If there is more than one definition, the message Entry 1 of # is displayed, where # stands for the number of available definitions.

If necessary, press the down arrow to read the definition.

Press the right arrow to scroll down a screen at a time and go to the next entry, where available.

12. Press  when done.

✓ Understanding Definitions

Dictionary entries consist of headwords, parts of speech, and definitions. Other forms of the word may follow the headword. After the translation or definition, you may see a list of usage examples.

✓ Choosing Multiple Forms

Some words in this dictionary have more than one form (e.g. resume, resumé, résumé). When the word you are looking up has multiple forms, the different forms appear in a list. Try this example.

1. Type resume at the dictionary Enter your word screen and press ENTER.

The message “Multiple forms” flashes on the screen, and the Multiple forms list is displayed.

2. Highlight the form you want and press ENTER to see its dictionary entry.

To go back to the Multiple Forms list, press .

✓ Correcting Misspellings

The dictionary has a spell corrector that helps you if you misspell a word. If you enter a misspelled word, a list of corrections is displayed. Try this example.

1. Type nolij at the dictionary Enter your word screen and press ENTER.

The message “Corrections” flashes on the screen, and the Correction List is displayed.

2. Highlight the word you want and then press ENTER to see its dictionary entry.

To go back to the Correction List, press .

Finding Letters in Words

If you are uncertain about how to spell a word, type a question mark (?) in place of each unknown letter. To find prefixes, suffixes, and other parts of words, type an asterisk (*) in a word. Each asterisk stands for a series of letters.

Note: If you type an asterisk at the beginning of a word, it may take a little while to find the matching words.

- 1. At the dictionary Enter your word screen, type a word with ?s and s (for example, se?rc) and press ENTER.

The message "MatchMaker List" flashes on the screen, and the list of possible matches is displayed.

- 2. Use the arrow keys to highlight the word you want and press ENTER to view its definition.
- 3. Press  when done.

Using the Thesaurus

Thesaurus entries consist of synonyms, antonyms, Classmates™ and words to compare. Many words have more than one thesaurus entry. To find a thesaurus entry, follow these steps.

1. Press , use the arrow keys to highlight Reference, and then press ENTER.
2. Press the down arrow to highlight Thesaurus and press ENTER.
3. Enter a word (for example, splendid).
For detailed instructions about entering words, see “Using the Dictionary” on page 37.
4. Press ENTER to view the thesaurus entry.
5. Press the down arrow to read the entry.
Press the left or right arrows to view the next or previous thesaurus entry.
6. Press  when done.

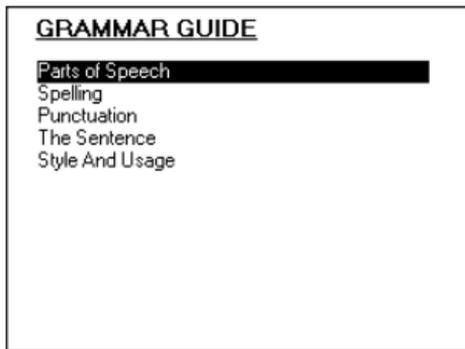

✓ Understanding Thesaurus Entries

A thesaurus entry consists of a group of synonyms, antonyms and classmates. Synonyms are words that have similar meanings, for example, happy/joyous. Antonyms are words that have the opposite meaning of the word being defined, for example, happy/unhappy. Classmates are words that are related in some way to the word being defined, for example octagon/polygon, triangle, rectangle, pentagon...

Using the Grammar Guide

The Grammar Guide contains an outline of English grammar topics such as parts of speech, phrases, clauses, the correct usage of punctuation, and so on. To view any grammar topic, follow these steps:

1. Press , use the arrow keys to highlight Reference, and then press ENTER.
2. Press the down arrow to highlight Grammar Guide and press ENTER.

The Grammar Guide is displayed.

Each major section is composed of topics and sub-topics.

3. Press the down arrow to highlight to the topic you want and press ENTER to select it.
4. If necessary, highlight the sub-topic you want and press ENTER.

To take a grammar quiz, highlight a menu item with the word QUIZ in the name, press ENTER, read the directions, and press ENTER again to start the quiz.

To exit the grammar quiz, press . For more information about grammar quizzes, please see “Grammar Guide Quizzes” on page 56.

5. Use the arrow keys to scroll through the text.

Press ENTER to start a highlight and  to remove the highlight.

6. Press  to return to the list of topics.

Press  to go to the Home menu.

Using the User Word List

You can save up to 100 words total in the user word list for personal study or review. The list is saved between sessions. The list is removed if you choose to erase all data stored in memory during a reset.

Adding Words

You can add words to the user word list directly from the Enter your word screen and from a dictionary or thesaurus entry. To add a word to the user word list, follow these steps.

1. Press , use the arrow keys to highlight Reference, and press ENTER.
2. Press ENTER again to select Merriam-Webster's Dictionary.

The dictionary Enter your word screen is displayed.

3. Type the word you want to add to the user word list (for example, preposterous).
4. Press A.

The Add To User List screen is displayed.

Note: You can add a word from a dictionary or thesaurus entry, too. Simply go to the entry and press A.

5. Press ENTER to add the word to the list.

The message “Word added” flashes on the screen, and the unit returns to the previous screen.

Press the down arrow and press ENTER to return to the Enter your word screen without adding the word to the user word list.

Note: If you try to add a word that is already on the user word list, the message “Already in list” flashes on the screen.

6. Press  to return to the Home menu.

✓ Adding Highlighted Words

You can also add words to the user list from definitions and correction lists. First highlight a word and then press

A. Press ENTER to add the word to the user word list.

Viewing and Editing the User Word List

To view and edit the user word list, follow these steps.

1. Press , use the arrow keys to highlight Reference, and press ENTER.
2. Press the down arrow to highlight View User Word List and press ENTER.

The user word list is displayed.

If you have not added words to the user list, the message, “The list is empty” flashes on the screen.

3. Press the down arrow to highlight a word on the list.
4. Press ENTER to go to the User Word Detail screen.
From this screen, you can look up the word in the dictionary or thesaurus, delete the word from the user word list or erase all words on the user word list.
5. Press the down arrow to highlight the option you want and press ENTER.

Note: To remove a word or erase the all words on the list, you must confirm the deletion by selecting Delete word or Erase all words. You can cancel the deletion and return to the User Word Detail screen.

6. Press  to return to the user list.

Press  to go to the Home menu.

✓ Adding Words Not in the Dictionary

When you add a word not in the dictionary, you are given three options: Add Anyway, Correction List and Cancel and return to previous screen. Highlight the option you want and press ENTER.

Caution: Adding words that are not in the dictionary uses considerably more memory than adding words that are. If you add only words that are not in this dictionary, the user list may contain as few as 10 words.

✓ SAT Word List

To view the SAT Word List, follow these steps.

1. Press , use the arrow keys to highlight Reference, and press ENTER.
2. Press the down arrow to highlight View SAT Word List and press ENTER.

The SAT Word List is displayed.

3. Press the down arrow to highlight a word on the list.
4. Press ENTER to look up the word in the dictionary.

Press the down arrow and then ENTER to look up the word in the Thesaurus.

Press  twice to return to the list.

5. Press  when done.

Using the Calculator

A basic calculator is included in this product.

Note: While you take the practice tests, it is recommended that you use the calculator that you plan to take with you to the exam.

To make calculations with the calculator in the unit, follow these examples.

1. Press , use the arrow keys to highlight Reference and press ENTER.
2. Press the down arrow to highlight Calculator and press ENTER.
3. Press the arrow keys to move the highlight to the number or math operator you want and press E.

For example, select a number.

You can type up to 10 digits.

If you type the wrong number, select CE to clear the entry.

Select +, -, x, or ÷ to add, subtract, multiply, or divide.

To...	Press...
divide (\div)	A
multiply (x)	B
subtract (-)	C
add (+)	D
calculate a result (=)	E

Select another number, and select = or press E.

Note: An error mark “E” is displayed when the calculation or memory content result overflows or the dividend of a division calculation is zero (0).
Select CLR to clear the error

4. Select CLR to clear the current calculations.

To repeat the calculation, press E again.

To use negative numbers, try this example calculation:

$$(-25) \div (-4) = 6.25.$$

- Select the following keys in order.

2, 5, +/-, \div , 4, +/-, =.

To use exponential numbers, try this example calculation:

$$1.05^3 = 1.157625$$

- Select the following keys in order.

1, ., 0, 5, x, =, =.

To use the root of a number, try this example calculation:

$$\sqrt{5} = 2.2360679775$$

- Select the following keys in order.

5, sqrt.

To use a percentage, try this example calculation:

$$12\% \text{ of } 480 = 57.6.$$

- Select the following keys in order.

4, 8, 0, x, 1, 2, %.

Using the Calculator Memory

1. In the Calculator, make a calculation or type a number.

Example calculation: $(52 \times 8) - (12 \times 3) = 380$

2. Select the following keys in order.

5, 2, \times , 8, =, M+, 1, 2, \times , 3, =, M-, MR.

Note: An M is displayed on the screen when a number is stored in memory.

To use numbers in memory, try this example calculation:
 $380 \div 19 = 20$.

1. Press the following keys in order.

MR, \div , 1, 9, =.

2. Press MC to erase the content of the memory.

Playing Games

You have five (5) fun and educational games from which to choose: Flash Cards, Letris, Word Dozer, SAT Drills, and Grammar Quizzes.

To select a game, follow these steps.

1. Press , use the arrow keys to highlight Reference, and press ENTER.
2. Press the down arrow to highlight Games and press ENTER again.
3. Use the arrow keys to highlight the game you want and press ENTER.

During any game you can read instructions by pressing . For details about playing the games, read the following sections.

X Flash Cards

In Flash Cards, words are displayed on the screen. Study the word and look up the definition before going to the next word. You can play Flash Cards by using random words from the dictionary or by using words from the user word list.

1. From the Flash Cards menu, press ENTER to begin the game using random words.

To use words from the user word list, press the down arrow to highlight Begin User List Drill and press ENTER.

A word is displayed on the screen for you to study or define.

2. If needed, press ENTER to see the definition.

Press  to return to Flash Cards.

3. Press the navigation button right and press ENTER to see a new word.

4. Press  when done.

X Letris

In Letris, letters fall from the top of the display to the bottom.

1. Press the left and right arrows to move the falling letter to make a word.

When you make a valid word (horizontally or vertically), it disappears and your score increases based on the length of the word.

2. Press the down arrow to make the letter fall faster.

When the score reaches 50, a dinosaur appears on the display. At 100, the dinosaur shoots fire from its mouth, burns up all the letters and jumps off the display. At 200, the dinosaur jumps down and squishes all the letters. At each of these new levels, the falling letter drops faster.

The game is over when there is no room for a new letter to fall into the screen.

3. Press  to return to the Games menu.
4. Press  when done.

X Word Dozer

In Word Dozer, letters randomly appear on the screen.

1. Use the arrow keys to move the word dozer so that it pushes letters together into words.

When you make a valid word, it disappears and your score increases based on the length of the word.

2. Press ENTER to pull a letter.

When the score reaches 50, 100, 200, 400 ..., the Word Dozer clears the letters off of the screen and a new level starts. Letters drop faster with each new level.

The game is over when the screen is so crowded with letters that you cannot make a word, a new letter appears in the same space as the bulldozer, or a letter falls on an existing letter.

3. Press  to return to the Games menu.
4. Press  when done.

x SAT Drills

To do an SAT drill, follow these steps.

- 1. From the SAT Drills menu, press the down arrow to highlight the drill you want and press ENTER.
- 2. Read the directions on the screen before you begin.
- 3. Press the down arrow to scroll through the text, if necessary.
- 4. Press the right arrow to go to the first drill.

Press C to go to the calculator, if needed.

- 5. Press A to display the answer to the question.
- 6. Press the right arrow to go to the next drill.

Press the left arrow to move to the previous drill without displaying the answer.

Note: If you are at the first or last question, press to return to the SAT Drills menu. If you entered through the SAT Prep text, the previous or next section of the text is displayed.

X Grammar Quizzes

To take a grammar quiz, follow these steps.

- 1. From the Grammar Quizzes menu, press the down arrow to highlight the quiz you want and press ENTER.
Note: You can also access grammar quizzes from the Grammar Guide menu.
- 2. Read the directions on the screen before you begin.
- 3. Press the down arrow to scroll through the text, if necessary.
- 4. Press the right arrow to start the quiz.
- 5. Press the left and right arrows to highlight the correct answer and press A to display the answer.
- 6. Use the arrow keys to highlight “<Prev” or “Next>” at the bottom of the screen and then press ENTER.

Note: If you are at the first or last question, the previous or next Grammar Guide quiz is displayed. If you entered through the Grammar Guide, press  to return to the menu.
